A plan administrator must be identified to serve as a liaison between the group and IFMA staff, and to receive the annual group renewal invoice.

- All memberships within the group belong to the organization and not the individual.
- Membership changes may be made by the plan administrator throughout the membership year.
- All memberships within the group discount plan are billed through one invoice annually and must be paid with one check or credit card. Multiple forms of payment cannot be accepted.
- Additional new members can be added throughout the membership year and invoiced immediately.
- All members within the group discount plan must have base membership minimum and may add fee-based options to the base.
- All new members must join a chapter, council or community the first year of membership. Current IFMA memberships can be pro-rated to match the group's paid through date.
- Group members are not contacted individually regarding renewing.
- Dues and fees applicable for a full-year membership (12 months)
- Discount applies to Associate and/or Professional memberships only.

Event Discounts

IFMA's World Workplace Conference & Expo group discounts are available—register four members for full event registration and the fifth registration is FREE. Discounts are available for other events.
