Part of WE’s mission is to share our collective wisdom, research, and experience with our global workplace community. Please join us in Indy for another great pre-conference event as WE explore some of the most current thinking and concepts about the workplace.

8-12:00 PM
For this session, “What WE Know for Sure”, WE has asked nine global thought leaders to share some of their best thinking and insights. Together as a group, we will have a chance to discuss and explore these ideas further, guaranteeing you will leave with practical takeaways.

12-4:00 PM
Something magical happens when you experience a great workplace firsthand. That’s why our afternoon sessions will take us to both Eli Lilly and Rolls-Royce—two very different organizations that have literally transformed “the way work gets done. You will hear from the FMs that actually drove the workplace change projects. You will learn why they did it, how they did it, what they learned and how their workplaces continue to evolve.”

4-6:00PM
Tour & Case Study: Eli Lilly
Brent Blanchard, Supplier Relationship Manager, Indianapolis Facility Management

Eli Lilly and Company’s Lilly Corporate Center (LCC) in downtown Indianapolis is a 100-acre urban site comprised of 4.6 million square feet of administrative, laboratory, and support buildings. In 2006, the Integrated Workplace (IWP) strategy began by focusing on increasing collaboration, and reinforcing a sense of belonging and pride. To date, they have created over 800,000 square feet of collaborative workspace and is home to 5,100 occupants who take advantage of the variety of work setting provided.

Tour & Case Study: Rolls-Royce
Matthew S Woodruff, Group Property - Senior Business Partner Defense

The Rolls Royce Meridian Center, their largest office building in the U.S. During this tour you will experience how Rolls Royce has adapted its workplace to enhance its culture and improve its work practices to drive higher levels of customer focus

Social Hour/Networking: Your chance to share what YOU know for sure at a state-of-the-art new workplace!